The KIMBALL FAMILY

of ANDOVER.

RICHARD (1) KIMBALL came here in the " Elizabeth", Wm. Andrews,master, April 10, 1634. He was then said to be 39 years old. With him came his brother Henry. They went first to Watertown. In 1637, Richard, called a wheelwright, got 40 acres of land in Ipswich near Robert Scott. In 1639 he is recorded as having free pasture for two cows; was one of seven men, between 1645-47, who killed foxes and got bounties. In 1649 he was permitted to cut down white oaks. He was taxed 3 sh. annually, in 1648, which tax was to support the military service. In 1653 he was appointed fence surveyor. Thomas Scott was called a brother-in-law, and at his death,Feb.1654, Richard Kimball and Edward Bridges were executors.

Richard(1) came from the parish of Rattleden, Suffolk, England. He was evidently married to Ursula Scott, as Henry(2) Kimball, son of Richard and Ursula(Scott) was baptized there Aug. 12,1615. Ursula's father was Henry Scott of Rattleden; her mother,Martha---.WHATLOCK In his will, made Sept. 24, 1623, he named his grand-children:Abigail Kimball,Henry Kimball,Elizabeth Kimball and Richard Kimball, each of whom is to receive 20 shillings.

Poor old Martha came over here with her son, Thomas Scott, and her son-in-law, Richard Kimball. Ursula's death is not yet found. Richard Kimball married second, Margaret Dow, a widow of Henry Dow of Hampton, Oct.23,1661. She owned a home of her own, and also lived (as a widow of Kimball,)in her third share of his house. Richard(1) died June 22, 1675; Margaret died March 1, 1676. He left to son, Ben (2), 2 oxen and had given him £25 previously. Each other child had £5. The inventory valued estate at £ 737.

Essex Court Probate:-

319:301-3..Will of Thomas (3) Kimball(Tom(2)Richard(1)) made August 30, 1731.... Thomas Kimball of Boxford... 40 £ in money to wife, Grace,"agreeable to our contract before marriage." the sum is to be paid by sons,Thomas,John and Ephraim, at their convenience.... Son Thomas had in 1730, all that was to go to him and son John had his share also. To son Ephraim is left all the husbandry gear,etc. As daughters had received money on their marriage they were to have merely their share in the housestuff, equally divided. All the estate,save the Negro boy, Caesar was to go to the executor. The six daughters and execu. each had a share in Caesar, who,in the meantime, could choose who he would have for master(which son) and he is to serve that person for 4 years after Thomas' death- then he is to be free. The son whom he chose for master, was to pay £40 , his value, to the others. If the sons refuse, Caesar has the privilege can hire himself out for the 4 years and the person who takes him shall pay the hiers the £ 40.

Son Ebenezer is to have 1/3 of a salt marsh on Plum Island added to the £ 120 he is to recieve at 21. Ebenezer is also executor.

Joseph Parsons, Jr;John Gage;Robert Hazeltine, witness.

From FARM AND NEIGHBORHOOD CEMETERIES

of ANDOVER AND NORTH ANDOVER, MASS. by Leonora W. McQuesten.

"The Moses Kimball Farm Cemetery.

Just beyond the Paul Averill farm on Forest St., in the Kimball district of North Andover, Mass., is located the farm which was formerly owned by Mr. Moses Kimball, a Revolutionary soldier, who marched from Andover to Cambridge, April 19, 1775, as a member of Capt. Joshua Holt's Company. This farm is now owned by Mr. Heo Albers of Lawrence, Mass., who occupies it during the summer months.

We find on this farm another family cemetery which contains only two real gravestones. Thse stones mark the graves of Moses Kimball's grand-daughter and her husband. It is said that Moses Kimball, the Revolutionary soldier, is buried here, and as he lived and died on this farm at over 90 years of age, in 1822, it is no doubt very true.

We do not find a record of his grand daughter's death or her husband's death in the Andover Vital Records published in 1912.

A few years more and this cemetery as far as outward appearance shows will fail to exist.
