So Solomon Cole went away to Landaft, N.H. and died there and the estate of Ephraim Foster went to Kimball Cole-. Kimball died Jan. 16, 1822. His estate is appraised by Amos Kimball, Jr., of Boxford, Simeon Foster and John Foster of Andover, April 16, 1822. Abigail, the widow is executor.

Abigail claims that she is entitled to 1/3 of the estate, by legacy and she and her son, Ephraim Foster Cole ask for a division. This is made in 1831, nine years after the death of her husband.

In the will of Kimball Cole, widow Abigail is to have the use and improvement of all the estate until his son, Ephraim Foster Cole is 21. If Eph dies before that, until son John, is 21, -if she remains a widow. To his 4 daughters, Sarah Foster, Rebecca and Menitabel Barker and Abigail, $200 each, when they are 21; if unmarried after 21, they are to have the use of the West room, cellar, oven and well; right of way; apples and fire-wood, from the woodlot. Widow Abigail is to have all the housegoods for life and 1/3 the estate, and at her death, the daughters are to share the goods, and her clothes.

"To son Eph Foster Cole, my Kimball pasture in Boxford near Jona. Foster," and farm tools- 2/3 of these at 21; mother to have 1/3 which will go to Eph at her death. "Eph is to pay my debts, 1st in money; 2nd in live stock; 3rd in land, if needed, at the discretion of the exec." Abigail is to sell if she see fit... to 3 sons, Eph, John and Wm. the rest of the real estate not disposed of. She is to have the use of the estate undivided until each is 21. In 1830 Eph was 21, so wants his division. the 3 boys divide the estate after legacies are paid. Moody and Debora Kimball. Will made Nov. 14, 1821. John Foster, witnesses.

The inventory:- Homestead in Boxford and Andover, 143 acres-mowing, tillage and pasture; orchard and woodlot; buildings-- $5005....30 acres in one Kimball pasture, $ 480; 9 acres also in Kimball's pasture in Andover, $ 100; pew No. 22, No. Parish of Boxford, $ 33; total-$5618.

Note--

When John Beebe made his will in 1650 on a voyage over here, he left his children in the care of two friends,one of whom was John Cole.After Rebecca Beebe arrived she went to Hartford to marry John Rusco-(maybe later spelled ROSCOE) of Norwalk,Conn. I have always wondered who this John Cole could have been.

Rather oddly, in the line of John Cole (2) of Salem, from Thomas(1)- we have in the 8th generation in Andover,ROSCOE KIMBALL COLE, born here 1861.

During the evolution our line here was in New Hampshire, and may have borrowed the name from the Norwalk line. Was it perhaps one of the family connections of Beebe and Cole, this ROSCOE stock in 1650? CHA.
