

THE HATCH FAMILY

of ANDOVER

EZRA HATCH of Parsonfield, Maine, and Susanne Holt of Andover, were m. here, Nov. 29, 1808, according to South Church records. Susanna died on Feb. 13, 1821. Ezra took for a second wife, Tamma Larrabee of Lynnfield, July 4, 1822. Ezra and his first wife, Susanne, had:-

Joel Holt Hatch, b. Nov. 8, 1812.

Sarah, b. Dec. 22, 1814.

Susanna, b. Jan. 4, 1818.

Charles Gardiner, b. 1818.

James Horatio, b. May 18, 1820.

Ruth, b. Jan. 31, 1821.

Mary Elizabeth, b. March 16, 1822. (Town record, "dau. of Ezra.") by 2nd wife, Tamma Larrabee:-

Andrew, b. in Burlington, (perhaps Mass.) Aug. 20, 1833; a pvt. in Co. H., Heavy Art., 1861; reinlisted 1863; wounded 1864; Co. B. at Ft. Bank(?) 1865.

JEREMIAH HATCH married Betsy Mason in Andover, Dec. 6, 1821. She may have been of a Reading line. They had:-

Enoch Mason Hatch, b. April 14, 1822; m. Lucy P. Adams before 1845.

Justin Harrison Hatch, b. July 27, 1824.

Phebe M. Hatch, b. Jan. 20, 1827.

Betsy Jane Hatch, b. Feb. 27, 1829; m. Ben Cheever, Jan. 17, 1847; he was son of Samuel Cheever and wife, Sarah.

Jeremiah S. Hatch, b. Jan. 12, 1831.

Martha M. Hatch, b. Aug. 9, 1833; m. Lewis Hatch, 19, a shoemaker; b. in Lovell, Me., son of Francis and Rebecca Hatch, Apr. 29, 1849. He enlisted 1861; wounded May, 1864 at Spottsylvania; d. 1866.

Sarah O. Hatch, b. Aug. 27, 1835; d. Feb. 22, 1841.

George F. Hatch, b. Sept. 3, 1838; m. Matilda Thornton. He was b. in Scotland District; lived in Frye Village on Gypsy Road, 1864; was in Civil War. She was dau. of Jn. Maxwell and w. Rebecca Cummings; was adopted by George Frances Thornton of No. Andover; she was b. in Patterson, N.J. George and his brother Enoch joined same Co. in Civil War. Re-enlisted 1863; wounded at Cold Harbor, 1864. Enoch was killed at Petersburg, June 1864. Had:- Lizzie Alice, b. here Aug. 16, 1861.

