

BELL FAMILY

of Andover

- Jona (1) Bell of Goffstown, N.H. had children :-

Russell (2), ; went to New York state.

Jona (2) ; Goffstown

Peter (2) ; lived in North Andover; m. Mary Bodwell of Methuen

Rodney (2) ; went to New York state.

Sam (2) ; " " " " "

John (2) ; " " " " " west part.

Sarah (2) ; in Goffstown; single.

Debora (2) ; m. David McPherson of Goffstown;

Phebe (2) ; m. Stephen Barnard of New Boston, N.H.

Roxanna (2), ; m. Sam C. Cogston ; lived in Goffstown.

---

---

---

Peter (2) Bell and Mary ( Bodwell) Bell of North Andover, had :-

Joseph (3) ; served in Co. H. 1st Heavy Art. Mass.

Caroline (3), m. Wm. Goodhue of North Andover.

Charles Henry (3), b. Jan 1, 1832 in Goffstown; m. Christina Robinson, May 5
1855; dau. of Michael Walker, b. in Scotland, Aug. 1837. They had:-

Laura (4) d.y.

Phebe Ann (4) d.y.

John Joseph, adopted son; born in Norfolk, Va., Nov. 5, 1853; son of Helen (Walker) Witting, sister of Nicholas Walker who
m. Richard Witting.

Rosina (4) ; m. Henry H. Damon of Reading.

Charles Henry Bell , pvt. Co. H. 1st Heavy Artillery, was discharged
July 8, 1864; lost right arm battle of Spottsylvania, May 19, 1864.

BELL FAMILY of

Andover

Joseph (3) Bell, was mustered in July 5, 1861; a private in Co. H., credited to Andover. He re-enlisted in the field Dec. 7, 1863; was made corporal; wounded near Petersburg, Va. June 22, 1864; to Veteran Reserve Corps, March 19, 1865; discharged Aug. 20, 1865. He was found dead in the woods near South Lawrence but no one seems to know how he died.

-----

A Robert Bell, was here also, who married a relative of John Woodbury and had a daughter Annie, a glovemaker. Robert was the son of William Bell, an Englishman, who used to live in the house near the R.R. bridge on Harding street. The eldest daughter, Margaret, married Orlando Morse and had a daughter, Annie.

-----

A James M. Bell, resident of Ashby, age 25, a clergyman, born in New York state, son of Thaddeus and Elizabeth Bell, married in NORTH ANDOVER, Sept. 14, 1855, Susan F. Frye, age 23, born in N.A., daughter of Enoch and Mary B. Frye. She was sister to Mrs. Fisher who lives on the old Frye place.

-----

Judge Bell of the Salem or Essex court lives now in Andover.

----- # -----