

BERWICK FAMILY

of Andover

Robert Berwick, of Andover, was brought to court in 1651, for not answering to the Grand Jury. He was evidently an official of some kind. ( Essex Antiquarian notes.)

---
The town of Berwick, Maine was named for this same family.

Thomas Berwick held lots at Tisbury on Martha's Vineyard, 1675, and was in Newport, 1680. Was only a transient in the vineyard.

Thomas Berwick of Bristol England, 1628, a vinter, had two daughters, -Grace and Anne. Was Grace the wife of William Ballard?

Did Anne marry Lordick of Charlestown ? Did the line go to Barbadoes before 1661?
