

FOLLANSBEE FAMILY

Of Andover

PAUL BAILEY FOLLANSBEE of Andover came here from West Newbury in 1838. He bought, from Dudley Trow, the farm once owned by John Crosby. Follansbee built the house in 1850 and sold the old one to the R.R. Co. for an ice house.

Paul B. was the son of John Follansbee and Judith Bailey, born 1811. He married Eliza Ann Chase, <sup>b.1811/</sup> daughter of John Chase and Ann Cochrane, and grand-daughter of Enoch Chase and Sarah Sawyer, and on her mother's side, of James Cochrane and Salome Knowlton, born in Andover.

John P. Follansbee, son of Paul, inherited the old place.
