

HENRY FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

The HENRY family of ANDOVER is traced back to ROBERT (1) HENRY, of Charlestown, N.H. and his wife, Sarah Bellows, through their son, George (2) Henry, b. Aug. 6, 1790; ^{who} m. Sally Ames, daughter of Timothy Ames and SALLY (KNEELAND), who was born Feb. 21, 1788; widowed on May 12, 1825, when George (2) was drowned at Meredith, N.H.

George (2) and Sally, had :-

John Ames (3), b. May 7, 1812; m. Hannah ^{Dodge} Trow, daughter of Capt.

Daniel Trow and Hanna (Luscomb) born June 17, 1820;

of Frye Village. (I knew John Henry as a child.)

George (3), b. May 6, 1813 ; unm. in 1865.

Sarah (3), d.y.

Lewis (3) b. ; m. Sally B. of Vt.; went to Dummerstown; kept tavern; a sheriff; moved to Brattleboro; worked at book-binding.

Thomas (3), b. ; drowned in Tennessee; prob. unm.

Sophia (3), b. ; m. either a Wilder or a Tucker.

Lucretia (3) b. ; m. either one of above.

Mary (3) b. ;
--- --- --

George Henry told of some old Revolutionary pensioner who died in Greenfield, N.H. , 1825, at 100 yrs. It may have been old Timothy Ames, father of Sally Ames , wife of Geo. Henry, Sr. Geo. Henry was apparently working or boarding with Mrs. Boynton while Poor was staying there.

John Ames Henry came over from North Andover and first kept house on the place Frank Farley owned, now occupied by Bagley, in Frye Village.

The HENRY FAMILY

Later they lived in the house a few steps below the Hill place, which Richard Hill, brother of Joshua F., had begun to alter in 1840, and had as a tenant, prior to John Ames Henry, - Andrew Frye.

John Henry and wife Hanna Trow, had :-

Charles Taylor, b. in the Bagley house, Sept. 14, 1848; alive 1910.

Frank Porter, b. in Michel Walker house, d.y.

Fred Herbert, b. in North Andover, May 15, 1853.

Mary Ames, born in the last house, d.y.

Martha Emma, b. May 8, 1858; m. Henry Emerson, of Newmarket, N.H.

John T. d.y.

--- --- --- ---