

The MILLETT FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

Thomas (1) Millett, a tailor, age 30, and his wife, Mary, age 29, with their 2-year-old son, Thomas (2), came from London, England in 1635 in the ship "Elizabeth" and made his first home in Dorchester. He is recorded as a Town Officer and freeman, in 1637. In 1655, he purchased from William Perkins, a teaching elder in the town of Gloucester, all the property Perkins<sup>n</sup> owned in that town, and moving there, he succeeded Perkins in his religious affairs.

But in 1658 he hailed into court one Wm. Stevens, a lay preacher, and accused him of withholding a list of subscriptions to his, Millett's salary. The jury decided in favor of Thomas (1) and he and Stevens were later reconciled and worked peaceably together until the Rev.

Emerson was ordained. This, very likely, put an end to the contributions to lay preachers, so Thomas moved to Brookfield, although he still held his Gloucester land.

The wife of Thomas (1) Millett was Mary Greenway, daughter of John Greenway, who came to the colonies, and in his will made in 1650, he is described as a millwright of Dorchester. He left property to Thomas Millett, "son of his son-in-law and daughter Mary."

According to Babson, Mary Greenway Millett died on Sept. 27, 1682, but as the settlement of the estate was made Feb. 1682-3, I think she died either Sept. 1682 or Jan. 1682-3. Thomas (1) Millett died in the latter part of 1675, in Gloucester.
