

THE PIERSON FAMILY or (PEARSON)

OF ANDOVER

Two distinct lines from the original John (1) PIERSONS of the 1600's, came, about 100 years later, to ANDOVER. One family descended from Deacon John(1) Pearson born in Yorkshire, England, 1615, who came to America in 1637, and settled at Lynn, temporarily. In 1639 he went to Reading, where he was one of the seven original founders of the little church and became Deacon in 1645. He married Maudlin Ballard (or Bullard) who died 1690, ^{at 71./} John was a freeman in 1647, May 26, and had fourteen acres of land in 1652. He died April 7, 1679 and was buried in the First Burial Place in South Reading.

The stone inscription reads:-

"Memento te esse mortalem. Fugit hora.

Vive memor leti. Fugit hora.

Here lyes the body of John Person,
Senior, aged 64 years. Deceased April ye 17, 1679."

(The Latin on his stone is the 153rd verse of the Third Satire of Persius.)

The other Deacon John(1) Peirson came from Essex County, England, to Rowley, Mass. in 1643, bringing with him the machinery for a fulling mill, which was the first in this country. Supposing that America had no wood that would withstand water, he brought cedar posts, also. Some of these posts were taken up about 1880 and found to be in a good state of preservation. He leased a gristmill from P. Nelson, which his son, John, subsequently bought.

John (1) was sent to General Court in 1678 and eight times after. He was a selectman; was ordained Deacon of Rowley Church, Oct. 24, 1686. In 1660 his tax was £1, 5s. 7d, and in 1691 it was £7, 15s, the highest but one in his town. He died Dec. 22, 1693. Dorcas died Jan. 12, 1702-3. They had thirteen children.
