

The PILLSBURY FAMILY

of ANDOVER

Capt. Paul Pearson Pillsbury came here in April, 1843, from Cow Island, Tuftonboro, N.H. He was son of Daniel and Eunice (Thurlow) Pillsbury, b. in Boscawen, N.H., November 1798. He m. 1st., Hannah, daughter of Zephaniah and Mary (French) Frost, of Tewksbury, who died in September, 1847. She was mother of a son, Solomon, who died at the age of 18.

Capt. Pierson's second wife was Sarah Ann Stevens, daughter of Daniel Stevens and w. Sarah Bailey. She was b. in West Parish, April 1815. Her mother was dau. of Wm. and Hannah (Hildreth) Bailey.

The Pierson children were :-

Solomon Burke, b. Dec.14, 1848 .

George Pearson, b. Nov. 1851.

The Pillsbury home, which was an early French homestead, is now owned by Mr. Shepard , on the Ballardvale road.

###