

Leaving You

by Alyssa Solomon

To bow to your addiction
To hide behind a glass
We've left you
To seize another drink
And swallow it down before you even think
Because we are hurt
Because there is nothing more we can do
Sobriety is all up to you
