

I Love You Dad

by Logane Rheaume

The doctor said you were going to be fine
And that you didn't need any surgery
So we all believed him
And continued to live our lives day after day

Then on that day, I got a call from mom
She called at school and told me to go down to the office
She was there to pick me up
But I didn't exactly know why

The whole drive, mom was speechless
I felt something was wrong
I felt it deep down inside
And I guess I was right

Mom had driven me to the hospital
And there, we went to see you
When I walked into the room, I heard people
Then I looked in, and saw a lot of doctors

I was standing, looking at you with watery eyes
Mom told me that everything was alright
That the doctor only wanted to talk to us
But I wasn't sure who to believe anymore

In his office we stood, hoping he was going to tell us good news
But then, I heard the words that I had nightmares about
"Your husband had a surprise heart attack.
I am sorry, but I am afraid we can't wake him up this time"

Tears were running down my cheeks like raindrops
From the sky
At that moment, I felt it, the nightmare I always had

That day, is the day we lost you forever
And I know that it's no ones fault

You went to heaven, for the better
And if I could tell you one thing right now
I would say, I Love You Dad.
