

Summer Volunteering Opportunities

At Memorial Hall Library

For students who will be entering 6th through 12th grade in September

Memorial Hall Library's Volunteering Program is an opportunity for students to work on community service projects, learn a little more about the library and have some fun in the process!

Students entering grades 6 through 12 in September are welcome to participate. Pre-registration is required.

IMPORTANT: There will be 3 Volunteering Sessions this summer. Students may register for one or all 3 sessions. However, we reserve the right to limit registrations to one session if demand is high.

Session 1

Monday, July 12: 10am-1pm

Tuesday, July 13: 10am-1pm

Students must be able to make both days and all hours of the Session 1 program. There are no make-up hours.

Session 2

Thursday, July 22: 2-5pm

Friday, July 23: 2-5pm

Students must be able to make both days and all hours of the Session 2 program. There are no make-up hours.

Session 3

Thursday, August 5: 10am-1pm

Friday, August 6: 10am-1pm

Students must be able to make both days and all hours of the Session 3 program. There are no make-up hours.
