To reach the old <sup>Joseph (3)</sup> Burtt homestead, easiest, - go to Lawrence and take the train for Lowell at No. Lawrence R.R. Station. Arrive at Haggett's station at 2.12. (!!! Times have changed!) Cross the fields past the Pond to Burtt's which has Wood Hill in back of it. See Wood Hill from rear windows; the Pond is to the East. Two rooms were built on the end of the old house and it formerly extended farther West, but part was taken away, and a new West Room added. Nathan Frye was married in this room, 1832, when the Burtt's lived over in the Village ~~for~~ awhile.

Burtt used to raise hops and near the place is the old dry-house site - with four trees growing in the cellar-hole..
