

THE COOPER FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

Rev. Wm. Cooper, married on May 12, 1720, Judith Sewell, daughter of Sam(6) Sewell. She d. 1740; he d. 1743. They had:--

William (6) Cooper, b. 1721, was a famous Town Clerk of Boston, a friend of Hancock and Adams. He married Catherine Wardwell, 1745. He d. 1809. They had:--

Samuel(7) Cooper, resident of Boston, a lawyer; Judge of the Ct. of Common Pleas of Suffolk Co.; 1800-09; m. his cousin, Margaret Phillips, daughter of Wm. Phillips. She d. Feb. 19, 1844; he d. before 1820.

Richard W. (7)

John (7), ; went to Madison, Me.; 1st Sheriff of Wash. Co., Me.;
m. in 1788, Elizabeth Savage of Boston.
Judith (7), b. ; m. Matthew Park.

Samuel (6), b. 1725; minister of Brattle St., Church, Boston; m. Judith Bulfinch, 1746; had:--

Judith (7), b. ; m. 1761, Gabriel Jhonnot; she d. bef. 1774; had:

Samuel C. (8), b. 1768; Harvard, 1783; d. 1806.

Zachary (8), b. 1769

Abigail (7), b. ; m. Joseph Hixon of Montserrat, 1777.

Thomas (6), b. ; sold estate 1753; no trace .

Judith (6), b. ; m. 1st., Dr. John Lever of Kingston, 1753; m. 2nd.,
2nd., W. Rand, Jr.

Samuel(7) Cooper and wife, Margaret Phillips, had:--

Samuel T. (8), resident of Andover; m. and had children.

W.P. (8), went to Illinois; had 2 sons.

George (8), ; Lieut. in the Navy; d. unm. in Charleston, 1825.