OF THE
DANE FAMILY
OF ANDOVER

COMPILED BY
CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT

The DANE FAMILY

John (1) Dane of Berkhamstead and Bishop, Startford, Herts, England, a tailor, came first to Ipswich and left later for Roxbury. He was a freeman there, 1641; married to Frances Bowyer; died Sept. 14, 1658.

The year that John (2) Dane came to the colonies is unknown, but he arrived here before his parents, lived for a time in Roxbury and then left for Ipswich, where he was recorded as a <sup>Surgeon</sup> Chirurgeon. It is claimed by Felt, that he was there in 1638. His father, old John (1) had a grant there in 1639. John (2) was b. about 1612; d. in Ipswich, Sept. <sup>29,</sup> 1684.

At the N.E. Historical Society of Boston may be seen the diary of John (2) Dane of Ipswich- a volume of manuscript, 132 leaves, 3 1/2 inches wide and 6 inches in length, bound in parchment. Title page: By John Dane of Ipswich, Chirurgeon, 1682. There are <sup>also</sup> some poems on the manner of preparation for death; 2 narrative poems, one in rhyme and one prose and minutes of sermons by Mr. Dennison, Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Grant.

on July, 2, 1643,
John (1) Dane, who took for a second wife, the widow of Wm. Chandler- made a will ~~on~~ July, 7, 1658, in which he mentioned his son, Francis Dane of ANDOVER, minister, who is to have a woodlot of 2 1/2 acres; his daughter Elizabeth, wife of James Howe of Ipswich, and his son, John (2) a tailor of Wood Roe, England and chirurgeon of Ipswich. He makes his widow, Annis, sole executor. Annis took for a 3rd husband, John Parmenter of Sudbury, and went there to live, Aug. 9, 1660. He died May 1, 1671, age 83, and Annis returned to Roxbury where she turned inn keeper. She died there March 15 (or 17), 1683.

John (2), married 1st, Elinor Clark, probably of Halffield, Eng.; <sup>his 2nd.,</sup> Jeremiah Osman of Gloucester, was Alice---, who took for a 2nd husband, one Mr. Meacham.

Elizabeth (2), who is named in her brother's diary as a child, seems to be the only girl of a family of 3 children. She married James Howe of Ipswich, called son of Robert Howe of Halffield, Eng.; Elizabeth was b. about 1608; died in Ipswich, May 17, 1702. James Howe was b. May 15, 1598; d. March 17, 1702; age 104. Some claim that she d. 1693, and that her mother was Frances Rowley- old John's first wife.

Francis (2) Dane, b. in England, 1615, came about 1636 from London to Boston, being 6 months on the journey, probably coming by way of Spain and West Indies. He was educated here, after he was 21, probably in the home of some clergyman- probably in Lynn, as he married Elizabeth Ingalls of Lynn, daughter of Edmund Ingalls and wife, Ann, and sister to Henry Ingalls. She was sister -in-law to Andrew Allen who married her sister, Faith. They all came to Andover and it is hard to say which led. John Woodbridge came up first, about 1635, started the church, and left, 1647. Dane got the place in 1648, very likely through the influence of Thomas and Wm. Chandler and George Abbott, husband of Hannah Chandler- all of Roxbury and all half-brothers.

The salary of Francis (2) was 1/2 in wheat and 1/2 Indian Corn until 1683- then 5 lbs. in silver. He kept a private school and got a farm grant in West Andover. He was for 48 years a leader in Andover Church. His first wife, Elizabeth Ingalls, died here, June 9, 1676; he married 2nd., Mary Thomas, Sept. 21, 1677; she d. Feb. 18, 1689 and he took for a 3rd., Hannah Chandler, step-sister, widow of George Abbott, about 1690.

Francis died Feb. 17, 1697. He left widow Hannah, 20 lbs. and a chest and "goods she brought" except her tobacco-meal and candles which she had spent. He named two sons, <sup>(3)</sup> Nath<sup>(3)</sup> and Francis (3). Hannah d. June 2, 1711, age 82.
